eLBA'13 Proceedings get published at the publisher "Fraunhofer IRB Verlag". Authors of notified paper publications must transfer their copyrights to the Fraunhofer IRB Verlag.

1. We ask for full paper submissions coping with unpublished academic research to the eLBA'13 Scientific Track! Extended Abstracts/Full Papers underlie a non-blind peer-reviewing procedure. The Scientific Track Language is English!

A scientific submission includes as a minimum requirement an extended abstract of 3 pages (+- half a page) or a full paper not exceeding 12 pages (strict requirement) in English language.

All accepted scientific papers must be presented by a speaker at eLBA'13 Scientific Track. Speakers must pre-register in line with camera-ready paper submissions due!

2. We ask for workshop submissions dealing with up-to-date industrial work and investigations into e-Learning Markets to the eLBA'13 Business Track!

Workshop specifications underlie a business-oriented evaluation procedure.

A workshop specification includes the nomination of a workshop chair and the specification of a theme of the workshop which must comply with aim and scope of the eLBA'13 conference. The specification shall include an estimation of the size of workshop in terms of number of participants expected.

The workshop structure is expected to include an impulse presentation and statements to report experience gained from practice. The main objective of a workshop is to stimulate in-depth discussion on the workshop theme.

The Business Track Language is German or English!

3. We ask for exhibition or poster submissions coping with recent academic or non-academic projects, demos or work from practice.

Exhibition/Poster Specifications are neither reviewed nor evaluated due to content;

Exhibition Specifications must include required resources of booth space in terms of devices, persons, tables, chairs etc. Accepted Specifications will be notified explicitly.
